APPLICATION for PROFESSIONAL LEADERSHIP AWARD

AAMC Professional Development Seminar for Early Career Women Faculty

This seminar is tailored to women at the assistant professor level during the time of application, who are aiming for a position of leadership in academic medicine and have faculty appointments in the USA or Canada. It is targeted primarily at physicians but is also pertinent for Ph.D. researchers involved in collaborations with clinicians. Objectives are to assist each participant in creating an agenda for working toward her professional development goals; to provide participants with insights into the realities of building a career in academic medicine, into key ways in which academic medicine is changing, and into leadership qualities demanded by these realities and changes; to help participants to expand their network of colleagues and role models; and to assist participants in identifying the skill areas on which they most need to work and give them a start in developing them.

The successful applicant will be provided with meeting registration fee only. All other expenditures will be at the expense of the applicant. Please note that the selected recipient will also be asked to submit an article to be published in Focus which describes one particularly helpful aspect of the meeting.

ALL APPLICATIONS SHOULD INCLUDE (1) A CURRENT CURRICULUM VITAE; (2) A STATEMENT FROM THE APPLICANT THAT DESCRIBES THE APPLICANTS QUALIFICATIONS, PROFESSIONAL ASPIRATIONS, AND GOALS FOR ATTENDING THE SEMINAR; AND (3) A LETTER OF SUPPORT FROM THE SPONSOR* OUTLINING THE CANDIDATE'S LEADERSHIP POTENTIAL.
